

MAHIDOL DECLARATION 2013

ASEAN MEDICAL TECHNOLOGY EDUCATION

In accordance with the discussion of 208 delegates from 59 educational institutes of Medical Technology* from 8 ASEAN and neighboring countries, we hereby jointly declare and affirm our efforts towards the betterment of healthcare system across the region. Owing to the inherent diversity in academic systems, applications of professional and levels of standard, it urges the need to unite and unify these differences into a single standard as to strengthen Medical Technology profession, leading to good health for the population in ASEAN and neighboring countries.

The mutual agreements of ASEAN medical technologist shall be extended for the additional competencies as follows.

1. Performing professional services with quality for taking care of individual and population health
2. Mastering novel and appropriate technology for health sciences application
3. Integrating Medical Technology profession for serving proactive roles as health promoter/ health promoter team
4. Collecting and projecting health information for improving the healthcare management system
5. Placing an increased emphasis on the research, ethical issue and social responsibility of the MT profession (MTSR)

These competencies will gear towards the unified goal. Therefore, herein, commitment to further development of standard curriculum, expanding of academic collaboration in both teaching and research, and exchange of staff and students are jointly deliberated and agreed upon.

To facilitate and effectively formulate the aforementioned commitment, the ASEAN Association of Schools of Medical Technology (AASMT) shall be initiated.
